RLT ANNOUNCES AUDITIONS FOR 'IT RUNS IN THE FAMILY'

ROGERS, Ark. — Auditions for Rogers Little Theater's upcoming Main Stage production, It Runs in the Family, will be held April 12-13 at 7 p.m. at The RLT Victory Theater in historic downtown Rogers.

Scripts are available at the RLT Box Office, 116 S. Second St., for a refundable $10 deposit. For more information, go to www.rogerslittletheater.org or call 631-8988. Dinner theater performances for this show are June 4-6, 10-13.

Britain's master farceur, Ray Cooney (Run for Your Wife and Caught in the Net) is at it gain Set in a London hospital three days before Christmas, It Runs in the Family contains the usual assortment of farcical nuts running in and out of doors, mistaking everybody for someone else.

"When the lights come up, the show will be on! No pauses for breath," said Director Charles Riedmueller, who directed "Rumors" last year at RLT.

"It Runs In The Family" has a cast of 12. Dr. Mortimore on the day of a big, big presentation discovers that he has a son with another woman, and his desperate attempts to hide this inconvenient fact descend into farce. Dr. Mortimore tries to fend off a paternity suit from his ex lover, a punkish son, his wife and various other lunatics. He struggles to deliver, at long last, the Ponsonby Lecture in an international conference of his peers.

"It will be fast-paced. We're going to work the timing down to seconds. Entrances and exits will need to be precise. Some actors love this and some loathe it, but it is essential to a good show of that variety," Riedmueller said.

For more information, contact the RLT Box Office at (479) 631-8988 or visit the RLT Website at www.rogerslittletheater.org for cast of characters.
